

Religious Education

I can understand why some symbols express religious meaning.

I can explore a range of religious stories and sacred writings and explain their meanings.

I can identify the importance for some people of belonging to a religion.

I can identify the differences religion makes to people's lives.

I can relate moral values to my own behaviour.

I can recognise that religion can impact on individuals, families and the local community